SA's best entrepreneurs named at E&Y awards

Updated 7 August 2009

Entrepreneurs succeeding in health services, internet search optimisation, kangaroo meat exports and solar power were recognised at this year's Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year Awards at the Adelaide Convention Centre last night.

Award winners in 2009 for the Central Region are:

- Ray Bora, Macro meats (Products category)
- Virginia Bullock, Home Support Services (Service category)
- Rahmon Coupe, YourAmigo (Technology & Emerging Industries category)
- Adrian Ferraretto, Solar Shop Australia (Young Entrepreneur category)

Anti-litter campaigner and environmental suitability leader, John Phillips, was named Central Region Social Entrepreneur Of The Year.

Wine industry chief and head of Yalumba Wine company, Robert Hill Smith, was awarded the Central Region champion Entrepreneur Of The Year.

The Central Region category winners and social entrepreneur will go on to compete in the 2009 Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year national awards in November.
